

O Bring Your Loved Ones

371

John R. Rice

John R. Rice

1. How can I meet Him with-out my loved ones, How can I smile and know they are
2. Time now for warn-ing, time now for plead-ing, Time now to weep, to cling to the
3. Sol - emnac - count-ing, fac - ing our Sav - iour. Re - wards re - ceiv - ing, suf - fer - ing
4. How poor in - vest - ment, in land or bus - 'ness; What cheap re - turns we'll have for our
5. How glad the greet-ing, praises and sing - ing, When we meet Je - sus, with all our lost, When I see Je - sus, up in the glo - ry With-out the souls He bought at such cost?

cross. Too late in Heav-en, to win our loved ones; Too late to pray, to weep o'er the lost.
loss! Judg-ment seat, fac - ing Je - sus in Heav-en; Wood, hay, and stub - ble, burn - ing as dross.
pains! But how the wise will shine in their glo - ry, When souls ap - pear, what e - ter - nal gain!
own! Then will our la - bor seem but a tri - fle, And all our tears, and toil - ing be done!

O bring your loved ones, Bring them to Je - sus! Bring ev - 'ry broth - er and sis - ter to Him!

When come the reap-ers, Home with the har-vest, May all our dear ones be safe gath - ered in!