D G A7 D A

1. Sing a - loud un - to God our strength; make a joy-ful noise un - to the God of Ja - cob.
 2. This he or - dained in Jo - seph for a tes - ti - mo - ny, when he we - nt ou - t
 3. I proved thee at the wa - ters of Me - ri - bah. Se - lah Hear O my peop - le,
 4. O - pen thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. But my peo - ple would not hear - ken to my voice
 5. and turned my hand a - gainst their ad - ver - saries. The hat - ers of the Lord should have sub - mit - ted,

Take a psalm, and bring hi - ther the tim - brel, the plea - sant ha - rp with the psal - ter - y.
 through the land of E - gypt: where I heard a lang - uage that I un - der - st - ood not.
 and I will tes - ti - fy un - to thee: O Is - rael, if thou wilt hear - ken un - to me;
 and Is - ra - el would none of me. So I gave them up un - to their own hearts' lust:
 should have sub - mit - ted, them - selves un - to him; but their time should've en - dur - ed for - ev - er.

9 D G A7 D A

Blow up the trum - pet in the new - moon, in the time ap - point - ed, on our sol - emn feast day.
 I re - moved his shoul - der from the bur - den: his hands were de - li - vered from the pots.
 There shall no strange God be in thee; nei - ther shalt thou wor - ship any strange god.
 and they wal - ked in their own coun - sels. Oh that my peo - ple had hear - ken - ed un - to me,
 He should have fed them al - so with the fin - est of the wheat and with hon - ey

For this was a stat - ute for Is - rael, and a law of the God of Ja - cob.
 Thou call'st in trou - ble, I de - li - v - ered thee; I an - swered thee in the sec - ret place of thun - der:
 I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of E - gypt;
 and Is - ra - el had walked in my ways! I should soon have sub - dued their en - e - mies, out of the rock should I have sat - is - fied thee, out of the rock should I have sat - is - fied thee.
